

Privacy Statement

Vaccinate Your Family (VYF) is committed to protecting the privacy of our website users. VYF is the sole owner of the information collected on our website. We only have access to the personal information that you voluntarily give us when signing up for Vaccinate Your Family's electronic communications, using our online forms to contact your policymakers, or making secure online donations to the organization. We will not rent or sell your contact or financial information to anyone.

Cookies

Vaccinate Your Family may use "cookies" on this website. A cookie is a piece of data stored on a site visitor's hard drive to help us improve your access to our site and identify repeat visitors to our site. Usage of a cookie is in no way linked to any personally identifiable information on our site.

Sharing

Vaccinate Your Family partners with other parties to provide specific services including sending out vaccine-related communications; allowing users to make secure online donations to Vaccinate Your Family; and allowing users to directly contact policymakers. When the user signs up for these services, we will share names, or other contact information that is necessary for the third party to provide these services. These parties are not allowed to use personally identifiable information except for the purpose of providing these services. We may share aggregated demographic information with our partners. This is not linked to any personal information that can identify any individual person.

Links to Other Sites

The Vaccinate Your Family website contains links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.
